Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, May 14, 1761.

WHITEHALL, March 3.

THIS Day an Expreſs arrived at the Earl of Holderneſſe's Office, with Letters of the th of February, from the Hon. Major-General ke, his Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary at Hague, with the following Account of the ogreſs of his Majeſty's Army in Heſſe.

ince Ferdinand's Head-Quarters at Hauſen, near Ober-Aula, February 21, 1761.

THE Commandant of Fritzlar having accepted the Conditions offered him, except thoſe concerning the Garriſons of Waldock and Wildungen, which were no longer inſiſted on, upon his claring, that the Troops in thoſe Places were not der his Command, he marched out of the Town the Evening with his Corps, conſiſting of ſeven quets drawn from the Iriſh Battalions, and 965 en of the Royal Grenadiers, beſides 105 wound- or ſick, agreeable to the Capitulation. My rd Granby ſent Word the next Day to the Com- ndant of the Caſtle of Gudenſburg, that he s ready to grant the ſame Conditions to him as . de Narbonne had obtained, with which Pro- ſal the Commandant very readily accepted, as oviſions, and particularly Water, began to fail em.

The Army renewed their March on the 17th, d advanced as far as Ober-Vorſchutz. The an-guard took Poſſeſſion of the Paſs of Feltſberg: ajor-General Zaſtrow of that at Nieder-Melle- th. The Hereditary Prince poſted himſelf in the eighbourhood of Falckenberg, and was before- nd with the Enemy in taking Poſſeſſion of the oſt of Hombourg with a Party of his Huſſars. he Reigning Count of Schaumbourg-Lippe took e Command of a great Body of the Army which mained in the Neighbourhood of Caſſel, and as joined by the Corps under General Gilſac.

The ſame Day our Troops entered Melſungen, hich Marſhal Broglio left the preceding Evening, n order to repair to Hirſchfeld. The Enemy had nly Time to deſtroy a part of the Magazine there, nd there was found remaining a Quantity of Meal nd Forage. Our Troops ſeized another conſider- ble Magazine at Ober-Morſchen. A Courier, who was diſpatched by Meſſrs. de Stainville and e Solms, expecting to find the Marſhal at Melſun- en, was taken by our Huſſars; and we learnt rom the Letters he carried, the Defeat of the Saxon Troops by M. de Sporcken near Langen- altze.

The Army paſſed the Eder on the 11th at Felſ- berg, and at Nieder-Mellerich, and was cantoned etween the Aſſe and the Fulda, in the Neighbour- hood of Hombourg. The Hereditary Prince was a Day's March before them towards Hirſchfeld. My Lord Granby marched to Frittendorff, by the Way of Ziegenhayn.

The Enemy having re-aſſembled a Body of Troops near Ober Weimar, and Nieder Weimar, not far from Marbourg, Lieut. Gen. Oheim de- termined at firſt to attack them, but altered his Intention, on receiving an account of the March of a Body of the Enemy, under the Command of the Chevalier de Maupeou, who had come from Siegen, with an Appearance of making ſome At- tempt by Padberg and Berleberg, upon Francken- berg.

On the 16th M. d'Oheim left Wettern to go to Franckenberg, and he found the Enemy poſted near Rodenau, in order to defend the Paſſage of the Eder which was made difficult by the marſhy Ground there. The Bridge of Franckenberg be- ing broken by the ſwell of the Water, M. d'Oheim was obliged to ſtop to repair it. The Enemy took Advantage of theſe Obſtacles to withdraw them- ſelves in the Night towards Hallenberg, after hav- ing deſtroyed the Bridge of Rodenau: M. d'Oheim was no ſooner informed of that Retreat, than he ordered a Part of his Cavalry to ford the River, and to occupy the Heights on the left Bank of the Eder; and ſent Parties to Sachſenberg and Hallen- berg, to get Intelligence of the Enemy. The Re- pair of the Bridge of Franckenberg was finiſhed. M. d'Oheim having learnt the 17th, that M. de Maupeou was with his Corps at Sachſenberg, after having ſufficiently provided for the Security of the Poſt of Franckenberg, and of the heavy Artillery, put himſelf in Motion on the 18th, early in the Morning, to march towards the Enemy, whoſe advanced Guard he met with between Sachſenberg and Neuenkirchen. It was that Inſtant attacked and routed; M. de Maupeou, Lieutenant-General, who was there in Perſon, was taken, with a Lieut. Colonel, 5 Officers, and 50 Soldiers. The Enemy having fell back towards Hallenberg, M. d'Oheim returned to Franckenberg to give his Troops ſome reſt there, and obſerve the Motions the Enemy might make on the Side of Marbourg, towards which ſeveral of their Regiments had filed off. Major Scheither attacked, the ſame Day, a De- tachment of the Enemy near Padberg, diſperſed it, and took 140 Priſoners, amongſt whom there were four Officers.

The Army arrived the 19th in the Neighbour- hood of Sohwartzenborn. The Hereditary Prince's Corps poſted itſelf at Ober Gieſe, and puſhed De- tachments on to Gitterſdorff. My Lord Granby went to Nuenkirchen; the Enemy's Detachments at Ober and Neider Grentzbach falling back upon Zeigenhayn. The Patroles of the Hereditary Prince reported in the Night between the 19th and 20th, that they ſaw a Fire at Hirſchfeld, which gave Reaſon to ſuppoſe the Enemy had abandoned that Place, and had ſet Fire to the Magazine. This Suſpicion was confirmed the next Morning, and our Troops entered Hirſchfeld, where there had been 15 French Battalions, which marched away in the Night towards Fulda. Great Part of the Magazine was ſaved, which had conſiſted of Eighty Thouſand Sacks of Meal, Fifty Thouſand Sacks of Oats, and a Million of Rations of Hay.

This Day the Army marched to Hauſen, the Hereditary Prince to his Quarters at Neider-Aula.

On the 19th, News came from M. de Sporcken (by Capt. de Borch, his Aid de Camp) whom he had diſpatched the Day after the Affair of Lan- genſaltze, with the Account of his Motion ſince the 8th of this Month, the Subſtance whereof follows:

M. de Sporcken, having divided the Corps un- der him into two Columns, one of which was commanded by Count Keilmanſegge, and the o- ther by Lieutenant General Wangenheim, put Major General de Luckner at the Head of a ſtrong advanced Guard, who marched the 9th to Heili- genſtadt.

The firſt Column arrived at Buren, and the ſe- cond at Stadthworbes. The Troops halted the 10th. M. de Luckner marched the next Day to Kulſtedt, Count Keilmanſegge to Helmſtorff, and M. de Wangenheim to Beberſtedt.

M. de Sporcken went to reconnoitre the Enemy, ſeveral of whoſe Regiments of Infantry had paſſed the Werra, at Eſchwege. There were Five Thou- ſand French in the City of Muhlhauſen: That of Langenſaltze, and the Villages in it's Neighbour- hood, were occupied by Saxons. M. Sporcken found on the Heights of Dorne four Battalions of Grenadiers of France, ranged in Order of Battle, and the Infantry poſted in the Wood towards Eichwege, to protect the Communication of the Werra with Muhlhauſen and Langenſaltze. M. de Luckner had Orders to attack them the next Day in the Morning with his Corps, which was to be ſuſtained by two Battalions and ſix Squa- drons. The ſame Day M. de Belſunce appeared before Duderſtadt, with 3000 Men, and ſome Cannon of the Garriſon of Gottingen; he ſum- moned Lieutenant-Colonel Rehbom, who com- manded in that Town, three Times; and, upon the negative Anſwers received from him, he cauſed the Gates to be battered for three Hours; but his Attempts were fruitleſs, and he returned the ſame Night.

M. de Luckner attacked, the 12th, the French and Swiſs Grenadiers, who had paſſed the Night under Arms, in the Wood of Dorne, over againſt his advanced Poſts at Anerode and Buckewriede. He puſhed them as far as the Heights of Egerieden, where they gained a thick Wood, which Count de Solms had fortified [illegible] Trees. They can- nonaded each other. The Enemy received Rein- forcements from the [illegible] on the Werra, and thoſe of the Saxons.

The Night coming on, M. de Sporcken could not aſſemble his Men, ſo as to undertake any Thing againſt the Enemy; he contented himſelf with making ſome Changes in the Diſpoſition of his Quarters, and ſo puſh the Poſts farther on. The Skirmiſhes of this Day coſt him forty Men in killed and wounded. The Loſs of the Enemy was more conſiderable, and four Officers and fifty of their Men were taken.

M. de Sporcken put his Troops in Order of Battle the 13th, at ſeven o'Clock in the Morning, upon the Height called Eiſberg; but having found the Enemy conſiderably reinforced; that they had occupied all the Woods where the Horſe could not act; and that the Troops of his Pruſſian Majeſty were at the Diſtance of three Marches, he reſolved to paſs the Unſtrut at Silberhauſen and Hortſmar, to draw near them by forced Marches.

He informed M. de Sibourg of his Intentions, and the Motion was executed in Preſence of the Enemy, without the leaſt Loſs. The Troops were cantoned between Kayſerſhager and Marolderode.

The Corps of Pruſſians advanced the 14th to the Height of Langenſaltze, which was occupied by 3000 Saxons. M. de Sporcken occupied the Village on the left Side of the River Unſtrut, with the Troops of his firſt Line, and drew thoſe of his ſecond Line as near it as poſſible.

He agreed with M. de Sibourg, that the Pruſſian Troops ſhould paſs the Unſtrut at Merxleben, whilſt he paſſed it at Thomaſbruck, and M. de Luckner at Bolſtedt. In the Night the Bridges, which the Enemy had broken, were repaired.

On the 15th, at ſeven in the Morning, all the Troops came to the River Side in Order to paſs it, but the Thaw had increaſed the Waters to ſuch a Degree in twice 24 Hours, that there was an Inundation from Muhlhauſen almoſt to Langen- ſaltze.

The Pruſſian Cavalry got through the Paſſage of Merckleben, while their Cannon was battering the Town of Langenſaltze. Eight Squadrons of M. de Sporcken's firſt Line paſſed at Thomaſbruck, with a Brigade of Chaſſeurs, and a Squadron of Luckner's, whoſe whole Corps could not paſs, the Waters continuing out all the Day. In the mean time the Pruſſian Cavalry fell upon the Ene- my, who were going out of Langenſaltze, and M. de Sporcken's Corps did ſo likewiſe upon the Troops that were coming down the Hills to their Aſſiſtance.

M. de Sporcken computes the Enemy's Loſs that Day at 5000 Men, at the ſame Time that his own ſcarcely exceeds 100. Lieutenant-General Ho- denberg was wounded, and taken Priſoner.

The Pruſſians took three Battalions, and ſeven Pieces of Cannon; and M. de Sporcken's Troops took two Battalions and ſix Pieces of Cannon.

During the Action, the Infantry of M. de Sporcken's firſt Line paſſed the Unſtrut at Tho- maſbruck; but the Troops being greatly fatigued, M. de Sibourg cantoned his Troops at Langen- ſaltze, and General Sporcken's re-entered his for- mer Quarters, on the Left of the Unſtrut, except M. de Luckner's Body, which remained at Mul- verſtedt and Schonſtedt.

On the 16th the firſt Line, under the Command of General Sporcken, paſſed the Unſtrut again, at Bolſtedt, and advanced cantoning as far as Groſs Gulſtern and Opperſhauſen. The ſecond Line paſſed passed the Unstrut at the same Place, and cantoned at Muhlhausen, where still 53 of the Enemy's Sick were found, and made Prisoners of War.

On the 17th Major-General Luckner, with his Corps, composed the Van-guard, and marched to Eisenach, which he attacked, and forced the Enemy, who was still there, under the Command of the Generals Stainville and Solms, to retire to Vacha. About forty Prisoners were taken there, and two Saxon Officers. The Army made a forced March in two Columns, and cantoned in the Neighbourhood of Streek, and Neukirchen. Luckner's Corps remained at Eisenach.

On the 18th they halted. This Day came in above 100 Swiss and Saxon Deserters.

On the 19th, Luckner's Corps, reinforced with four Squadrons of Veltheim's and Bremer, marched as far as Vacha (the Bridge of which was barricaded) attacked and forced the Enemy to abandon it about Midnight. Six of our Men were killed, and about thirty of the Enemy's wounded. General Luckner lodged the Light Troops in Vacha, and cantoned the rest of his Corps on the Right of the Werra near Vacha. The first Line marched to Ober Elin, and Fords, and the second to Eisenach.

On the 20th Luckner's Corps halted. The first Line of Spoercken's Corps marched to Heringen and Kiefelbach and the second to Vehren Brietenbach and Frauensee. The Prussian Troops marched this Day to Gotha, to observe the Army of the Circles, which was re-assembled at Arnstedt.

On the 21st Luckner's Corps marched to Manibach, and passed the Werra at Vacha. The first Line marched to Freidenswald, Hamelshausen, and Lengers, passing the Werra at Vacha and Lengers. The second marched to Heringen and Vacha. Many Deserters came in from Stainville's Corps, which made its Retreat by Manibach to Fulda.

LONDON, January 31.

His Prussian Majesty's Affairs are at present in excellent Order; his Army is very numerous; his Magazines properly disposed, and well replenished. He has fought Peace while he was preparing for War; and the Public will receive the most authentic Proofs of the Veracity of these Assertions from his early Operations, which may possibly decide the Fate of the Campaign almost as soon as it is begun.

Some Letters from Paris say, that they are fitting out both at Rochfort and Brest all the Ships of War and Frigates that are fit to go to Sea.

These Letters add, that it had been computed that the Number of French Ships taken by the English last Year amounted to 944; and the Number of English Ships taken by them, to 2539.

The Prince Frederick, Robinson, from Maryland for London, is taken and carried into St. Maloes.

The Triton, Hardy, from Maryland to London, is taken and carried into Bayonne.

The Duke, ——, and the Hicks, Smith, both from Maryland, are arrived at Whitehaven.

The Nancy and Molly, Kingsbay, from Maryland to London, is taken and carried into St. Maloes.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, January 23.

"The Ships that lately got out of the Villaine, are happily arrived at Brest.

"The Courageux, of 74 Guns, is sailed from that Port with several Frigates, having on board 500 Royal Grenadiers; but we know not the Destination of this small Squadron."

February 3. His Majesty's Ship the Loo, commanded by Captain Penny, in a late Cruize to the Westward, retook, on the 23d of November, the Ruby Brigantine, of Whitby, from Maryland bound to London, which had been taken the Day before by a Bayonne Privateer.

February 14. We may form a Judgment of the immense Trade the Dutch have acquired during the present War, from the following List of the Fleet which sailed from the Texel the 26th ult. which consisted of 72 Sail for France, 20 for Lisbon, 22 for Cadiz, 30 for the Streights, 10 for England, 8 for Corocoa, 17 for Eustatia, 17 for Surrinam, and 10 for East-India, all under Convoy of Men of War.

Feb. 17. The Right Hon. Mr. Secretary Pitt is so much indisposed, that he could not attend the House of Commons Yesterday; therefore some Business of Consequence that was expected to have come on, was postponed.

It is said that the Number of Prisoners in the different Goals in England, at the least Computation, amounted to near 60,000.

Feb. 21. The Master of a Vessel who was taken and carried into Bayonne, is just come Home in a Cartel Ship from thence, and says, that there are belonging to that Port and St. Juan de Luz, sixty Sail of Privateers, and when he came away, there were near forty of them at Sea, some of which cruize to the Westward of the Western-Islands: He further says, that several Spaniards and Portugueze were come there to purchase English Vessels, but that an Order was come from Court not to sell any of them but to their own People.

The Assistance Man of War of 50 Guns, and the Aldborough of 20, are appointed Convoy to the Trade bound to Virginia and Maryland. The said Men of War are to bring the Trade home.

The Nettleton, Reid, from Virginia to London, is taken by the Duc de Gramont Privateer of Bayonne.

Admiralty-Office, Jan. 30. Captain Elphinstone, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Richmond, of 32 Guns, and 220 Men, being on a Cruize upon the Coast of Flanders, received Intelligence the 23d Inst. of a French Frigate which had the Day before taken and ransomed the Dorothy and Esther, William Benson, Master. Captain Elphinstone immediately went in Quest of her, and fell in with her about Eleven o'Clock, the same Night. She bore down upon the Richmond for a short Time after being in Sight, but then suddenly hauling her Wind, endeavoured to get away. Captain Elphinstone pursued, and came up with her about Half past Ten o'Clock the next Morning, when they began to engage, standing towards the Land; and at Half past Twelve, both Ships run ashore along Side of each other, still continuing the Engagement for a short Time, when the Enemy fled from their Quarters. The Richmond soon afterwards got on Float, and being drove by the Tide a little to Leeward, the Enemy quitted their Ship, and escaped, but the Ship is intirely destroyed. The French Frigate was called the Felicite, and carried 32 Guns, was bound to Martinico, with a Cargo valued at 30,000 l. Sterling. Her Consort the Harmonie, another French Frigate, of the same Force and Value, was lost coming out of Dunkirk. Captain Donell, Commander of the Felicite, was killed in the Engagement, and near 100 others of the Enemy were killed or wounded. The Richmond had only 3 Men killed and 13 wounded.

March 3. The last Letters from Spain speak positively, that a Treaty between the Courts of London, Madrid, and Turin, is actually concluded; and that, by Virtue of it, his Catholic Majesty has ordered some of his Troops to file off towards Barcelona, to embark there for Italy.

March 7. A Mail will be made up and dispatched from the Post-Office the 14th Instant, for New-York, by the Halifax Packet Boat, Captain Boulderson.

NEW-YORK, April 29.

Captain Finglass, from London, sailed from Spithead the 12th of March, in Company with Captain Ouchterlony, for this Port, Captain Hooper for Boston, and several others for Carolina and Virginia, under Convoy of his Majesty's Ship Success, Captain Hamilton, of 20 Guns, bound for South-Carolina: He parted with Captain Ouchterlony about five Weeks ago, all well on board; and last Week, to the Westward of Bermuda, he spoke with three Letter of Marque Brigs from Virginia, bound to the West-Indies.

Captain Finglass says, that the Day before he sailed from Spithead, the Admirals Hawke and Hardy arrived there from Quiberon-Bay, and brought in with them several Prizes, some of them Privateer Ships, several Lug-sail Cruizers, and a Sloop from Martinico with Sugars: That the Channel was very well cleared of French Privateers, Numbers of them having been lately taken by our Frigates: That the Fleet was still at Spithead, and the Troops in their Quarters in different Parts of England.

Thursday the 16th Instant was sent in here, by the Privateer Brig Mars, Captain M'Gillycuddy, the Snow La Fortune, Captain Chrest, taken the 16th of March, from the Grenades, bound for Marseilles, in Old France. Her Cargo consists of Sugar and Coffee, and is esteemed a valuable Prize.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.

In a Letter from London, by Captain Lane, there is the following Paragraph:

"The Grand Expedition, which had been laid aside for some Time past, is now going forward again; the young King continues to give great Satisfaction; the War is still to be pushed on in Germany; the Parliament is to be dissolved the 19th of March; the same Unanimity continues; and as the French seem obstinate, we are resolved to see them out, rather than give up the Advantages we have gained."

ANNAPOLIS, May 14.

Yesterday arrived here Captain Charles Courtney, in the Ship Sally of Whitehaven, in 24 Days from St. Kitts; but brings no News. There was no Talk there of any Expedition against Martinico.
